Central Michigan University and Glen Oaks develop articulation agreement

CENTREVILLE---Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, and Glen Oaks Community College announce an articulation agreement through CMU's Off-Campus Programs for the Bachelor of Science in Administration Degree.

David L. Johnson, Jr., Manager of Undergraduate Degree Programs at Central Michigan University Off-Campus Programs, said the Associate of Business Degree at Glen Oaks blends nicely into CMU's program leading to the BS – Administration. "We are pleased to offer this additional baccalaureate degree completion option for Glen Oaks Community College students," said Johnson.

Johnson encouraged GOCC students to review the CMU website's Off-Campus Programs homepage and scholarship information, as well as the undergraduate transfer guide and articulation agreement. Glen Oaks Community College counselors are also prepared to advise students on the CMU articulation agreement. For more information, contact Glen Oaks student services at (269) 294-4300 or 1-888-994-7818.
