Free seminar to cover job search strategy, resume writing and interview tips

CENTREVILLE---A free seminar will focus on some of the essential elements of landing a good job in a tough economy. The 5:00-8:00 p.m. session will be held Tuesday, November 10 in the Glen Oaks Community College Business Development Center's Dresser Auditorium. This informative seminar includes detailed job search strategy, as well as time discussing effective resumes and interviewing techniques. Attendees may bring a resume and any questions they may have to the seminar.

Glen Oaks Community College is located just south of Centreville at 62249 Shimmel Rd. The Business Development Center is located next to the College's main entrance and parking lot.

The free seminar is presented by Glen Oaks Community College and those planning to attend must complete a reservation form to reserve a seat. Contact Kari L. Scare, Director of Business Services, at (269) 294-4276, by faxing (269) 467-9068, or e-mail kscare@glenoaks.edu
