GOCC salutes faculty and staff for service to college

CENTREVILLE---A dozen faculty and staff members received recognition recently for varying years of service to Glen Oaks Community College. Dr. Gary Wheeler, President, thanked the employees for their loyal service during an All College Meeting held October 13 in the Dresser Auditorium at the Business Development Center on campus.

Dr. Wheeler said the dedicated support to students and the college is especially appreciated during a time of unprecedented demand for Glen Oaks Community College's many educational and training services. Maralee Hawver, Executive Assistant to the Faculty, led the list of award recipients with 30 years of full-time service.

Those honored with 2009 Employee Service Awards included (pictured left to right) Professor of English Kevin Gave-10 years, Professor of Sociology Jeanne Reed-15 years, Director of Nursing Karen Ganger-10 years, Public Relations/Marketing Manager Lon Huffman-10 years, Assistant Dean of Enrollment Services Beverly Andrews-20 years, Professor of Early Childhood Education Karen Grunert-10 years, IT Network Technician Chris Khodl-10 years. Not present at time of the picture: Senior Secretary to the Upward Bound Program Elizabeth Kelly-5 years, Accounts Receivable/Bookstore Cashier Clarice Beck-10 years, Custodian John Thole-15 years, Counselor and International Student Coordinator Cheryl Hayden-20 years and Executive Assistant to the Faculty Maralee Hawver-30 years.
