

NEWS RELEASE

For immediate release/March 5, 2009

Glen Oaks names Tonya Howden Director of Admissions

CENTREVILLE---Tonya Howden is the new Director of Admissions at Glen Oaks Community College. Howden has extensive experience in education. She replaces Jean Zimmerman who was recently named Director of Financial Aid/Scholarships at the College. Howden earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English at Fort Hays University, Kansas.

Howden began employment at Glen Oaks on December 8, 2008, as an Executive Assistant to the Registrar and Director of Admissions. Her prior experience in education includes teaching at the junior and senior high school levels for a total of 11 years. She has taught language arts, forensics and drama. Tonya also coached four sports during those years. Howden is also familiar with Glen Oaks through service as an Upward Bound Summer Academy Literature Instructor.

For more information contact:

Lon Huffman

PR/Marketing Manager

Glen Oaks Community College

Centreville, MI

(269) 467-9945 or (888) 994-7818

Lhuffman@glenoaks.edu