

Glen Oaks Community College
62249 Shimmel Rd., Centreville, MI. 49032

For more info contact Lon Huffman
467-9945 or 1-888-994-7818

Coming Events at Glen Oaks

MARCH 2010

(News/Sports Editors: Please announce these events at least a week before date)

Wednesday, March 3

The Winter Blood Drive at Glen Oaks Community College takes place from 10:00 a.m.-3:45 p.m., Wednesday, March 3 in the Business Development Center's Dresser Auditorium, located next to the main entrance.

Friday, March 5 - Sunday, March 7

The Glen Oaks Community College Men's Basketball Team plays in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division II Region XII Tournament hosted by Mott Community College, Flint, Michigan. The Vikings will play at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, March 5, against Lake Michigan College or Kalamazoo Valley Community College.

Friday, March 5-Sunday, March 14

The Glen Oaks Community College Men's Baseball Team travels to Georgia and Florida in their spring training trip. The Glen Oaks' Vikings play several Georgia colleges over March 5-7. Then March 9-14, the team joins in the Gulf Coast Spring Classic at Gulf Coast Community College, Panama City, Florida to play teams from New York, Illinois and Ohio.

Monday, March 8-Friday, March 12

The Glen Oaks Community College Women's Softball Team travels to Clermont, Florida for the Spring 2010 National Training Center trip. They will play college teams from Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, New Jersey, Iowa and Michigan during the week.

Glen Oaks Community College students enjoy a break from the classroom Monday, March 8-Friday, March 12 for annual Spring Break. The college remains open for enrollment and other activities throughout the week.

Wednesday, March 10

The Glen Oaks Community College Board of Trustees meets at 7:30 a.m. in the College Board Room for their monthly public meeting.

Monday, March 15

Students, faculty, staff and community members at Glen Oaks Community College will attempt on Monday, March 15 to break the Guinness World Book record for the world's largest cooked meatball. The giant, 350 lb. meatball will be cooked by student government, faculty leaders, and the Science Department in cooperation from the Department of Health. A 4 p.m. dinner is planned at the college campus. "We expect to be able to feed up to 800 people from our county with a meatball sandwich, salad, and a beverage for free," said Bill Furr, Professor of Business.

Tuesday, March 16

If the Glen Oaks Community College Men's Basketball Team has won their District Tournament on March 5, they will participate in the NJCAA National Tournament at Danville Area Community College, March 16-20, 2010.

Wednesday, March 17

The Glen Oaks Community College Men's Baseball Team travels to Owens Community College for a 3:00 p.m. game.

Beginning Computers and Internet Basics (CES 781), Section 1, if offered 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., Wednesdays and Mondays, March 17, 22, 24, 29 and 31 in Room 22A&B of the Glen Oaks Community College Business Development Center. Fee for this 1.0 credits, 15 hour public Continuing Education class is $136 and includes all materials. Instructor Mary Kay Balaguer will gently take you through the ins and outs of your computer, what it can do, the lingo, how to search and explore on the Internet, how to shop safely, and what resources are available. Join others who have the same questions that you have and have fun doing it. Contact Kari Scare, Director of Business Services, at (269) 294-4276 or kscare@glenoaks.edu for more information or to enroll in this course.

Thursday, March 18

The Glen Oaks Community College Women's Softball Team travels to play the Olivet College, J.V. in a 3:00 p.m. game.

Small Business & Nonprofit Financial Management (CES 816), Section 1, if offered 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m., Thursday, March 18 in a location in the Three Rivers area. Fee for this 0.1 credits, 1.5 hour Continuing Education seminar is $20 and includes all materials and lunch. Instructor Mary Kay Balaguer explores the different financial software packages available today. The different features available in the programs and what the setup of each requires. You'll also learn what is involved in converting from one program to another. Those purchasing their first financial software package will make their best choice for their needs. Contact Kari Scare, Director of Business Services, at (269) 294-4276 or kscare@glenoaks.edu for more information or to enroll in this seminar.

Tuesday, March 23

The Glen Oaks Community College Men's Baseball Team travels to Kellogg Community College for a 3:00 p.m. game.

Introduction to Excel 2007 (CES 763), Section 1, if offered 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays, March 23, 25 and 30 in Room 22A of the Glen Oaks Community College Business Development Center. Fee for this 0.6 credits, 9 hour public Continuing Education class is $114 and includes a book. Instructor Mary Kay Balaguer helps you learn the basic features and functions of this spreadsheet program. Topics will include spreadsheet terminology, getting help, navigating workbooks, entering and editing data, modifying worksheets, using functions, formatting worksheets, printing worksheets, creating charts and managing large workbooks. Contact Kari Scare, Director of Business Services, at (269) 294-4276 or kscare@glenoaks.edu for more information or to enroll in this course.

Thursday, March 25

The Glen Oaks Community College Women's Softball Team travels to play the Trine University J.V. for a 3:00 p.m. game.

Friday, March 26

The Glen Oaks Community College Women's Softball Team hosts Grand Rapids Community College for a 3:00 p.m. game.

Tuesday, March 30

The Glen Oaks Community College Men's Baseball Team travels to Ancilla College for a 2:00 p.m. game.

The Glen Oaks Community College Women's Softball Team travels to Jackson Community College for a 3:00 p.m. game.