Who May Apply

The Occupational Student Success Program is open to all Special Population Students. A Special Population Student is a person who, through a formal assessment, has been deemed as being one of the following:

Single Parent, Including Single Pregnant Woman –

An individual who is unmarried or separated from a spouse, and has a minor child or children for which the parent has either custody or joint custody.

Is unmarried or separated from a spouse and is pregnant.

Displaced Homemaker – An individual who is under-employed or unemployed and is experiencing difficulty in obtaining employment or upgrading employment AND:

Has worked primarily without remuneration to care for a home and family, and for that reason has diminished marketable skills; or

Has been dependent upon the income of another family member but is no longer supported by that income; or

Is a parent whose youngest dependent child will become ineligible to receive assistance under Part A of the Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C 601 et seq.) not later than two (2) years after the date on which the parent applies for assistance under this Title.

Economically Disadvantaged – An individual from economically disadvantaged families, including foster children. This individual must be one or more of the following;

Pell grant recipient or recipient of some other form of financial assistance, A migrant, and / or referred by faculty or staff as requiring support services to succeed.

Non-Traditional Training and Employment

Participate – An individual enrolled in an occupational program that is considered non-traditional for his/her gender as determined by National Labor Statistics and State Year-End Program enrollment data. These occupations or fields of work generally include careers in computer science, technology, and other emerging high skill occupations for which individuals from one gender comprise less than twenty five (25%) percent of the individuals employed in each occupation or field of work.

Individual with a Disability – A person having any of the disabilities as in Section 3 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

$ Potential Financial Support $

Students participating in the Occupational Student Success Program may be eligible for supplemental financial support. Supplemental support consists of funding to pay for any tuition, fees or books not covered by free financial aid and to pay for costs associated with childcare.

To apply for financial benefits, you must complete the application process, complete a FAFSA, and provide any additional, required documentation. Applications are only available through the OSSP office.

Applications submitted by active OSSP participants will be considered for funding.

Emergency transportation vouchers and bus passes are also available to OSSP participants. Once students complete the OSSP program application process they are encouraged to talk with the Student Support Specialist about available financial services.
